HART IS SHIFTED

Frank Hinkey has come East again this year chock full of football and enthusiasm, to give Yale another pair of first-class ends.

It is the orthodox thing for world's series to furnish surprises. This time we have two. They are Eddie Collins and Ira Thomas.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. IS.—Capt. Eddie Hart was shifted today from full back to left tackle on the Princeton football team, and it looks as if the change would solve the difficulty manifested in the Lafayette game Saturday, when Princeton could not go the last few yards for a touchdown.

There is no doubt that Hart will make an aggressive tackle and that he will be able to rip a sizeable hole through any line he is likely to meet this season, Besides that, he has had experience at the position, having played in this positior at Exeter.

Collins best bet.

Collins is declared, by men who have seen every series of the sort, to be playing the best individual game ever put forth by a contender for the mundane. Fielding Yost has coached nine Michigan foothah teams. He is now teaching tricks to the tenth Wolverine squad. The Hurry Up man believes that the 1901 collection was the best of them all. The 1942 Michigan eleven is popularly supposed to have been the best of the lot, but Yost doesn't think so.

"For all-around ability my first team in 1800 was the best," said Yost recentive. "It didn't play quite as brilliantly as the 1502 bunch, but was more dependable and more resistless in its attack. On defense that set of boys couldn't be touched."

The 1901 team conteined such famous football names as Heston, Herrnstein, Redden, Shorts, McGugin, and Snow. It was the 1902 team that stored 640 odd points in the season and was known as the "Point a Minute" eleven.

In the best muchaer for the mundane pennant. They say this without reservation, and are probably right. We can't conceive how a man could be better at any angle of baseball. His covering of ground at second is the equal of anything Evers or any other second baseman ever did, bar none.

Two in a row for the Athletics. It Union Station. Said fans saw him do every variety of stunt and praised him. NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—With only one more victory needed to clinch the local champlonship, the New York Giants headed for the Yankees' Hiltop grounds today, determined to put the finishing touches to the series.

To this end it was believed that McGraw would pitch "Red" Ames, who showed great form when he relieved Crandall in Monday's game. Manager Chase was hard put for pitching selection. He intimated that if Ford was in condition, he would send him in, notwithstanding the fact that the young star pitched seven innings Monday. Although the season is hardly well under way the Blue and Gray has already is the fact that the University of Pittsburg, which will be Georgetown's opponent, has also kept its goal line interested and has piled up ninety-six points. Goals from placement and drop kicks again played an important part in Saturday's football tussles. In practically all of the so-called big games, scoring from outside the 20-yard line was done. The Army made one and Yaie made one, Princeton just barely won from Lafayette by kicking a goal in the last few moments of play, Dartmouth made one, Waite, of Syracuse, kicked three points from placement against the Carlisle Indians. Thayer booted one between the bars for Pennsylvania in the Brown game, Williams and New York University each made one, and so one, the principal teams of two well-drilled high school teams—one decidedly heavier than the other—meeting and the lighter one being unship to stop its opponents.

For the first half there was but a single score, and that the result of a long run returning a punt.

As time went on Eastern was unable to stand the strain, and toward the close Central scored three times, also one, and so one.
